Name:	Date:

KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Big Data 2

1	Which one of these is a method of wireless data transfer?
A	QT codes.
B	QR codes.
C	QE codes.
D	QV codes.

2	Which one of these is a method of wireless radio communications?
A	NFC.
B	KFC.
C	BFG.
D	NUT.

3	What does RFID stand for?
A	Radio For Information Data.
B	Radio Frequency Identification.
C	Red Frequency Information Delivery.
D	Red Frequency Identification.

4	What does Big Data refer to?
A	Large file sizes that have to be compressed.
B	Huge computers that help with wireless data transfers.
C	All the data on the internet.
D	Information collected online, used by analysts to improve businesses.

5	What is data called when it becomes unstable and unreadable from either transfer or storage?
A	Bad data.
B	Virus.
C	Corrupt data.
D	Broken data.

7	What is GPS mainly used for?
A	To determine what your location is on Earth (i.e. where you are).
B	To analyse and report and data.
C	As part of the hard drive on a computer.
D	To report on any events in the Solar System.

Kapow Primary

7	What is a network of smart devices around a building that collect monitor and distribute data to work harmoniously together?
A	Internet of Data (IoD).
B	Internet of Things (IoT).
C	Internet of Communication (IoC).
D	Digital Internet (DI).

8	What is a Subscriber Identity Module?
A	A piece of software for analysing data.
B	A SIM card for a mobile phone.
C	A type of barcode.
D	A device that creates computer simulations.

9	Which one of these uses more than 100mb of data?
A	Four hours browsing on the internet.
B	Listening to 25 songs.
C	Streaming 10 full length films.
D	Sending 3,000 instant messages.

10	Do you think wireless data transfer is helpful? Why? Give some reasons for your answer.