Name:	Date:	KS2 Quiz

Unit title: Skills showcase: Inventing a product

1	What is it called when something is promoted or announced to the public through video, voice or images?
A	Advertisement.
B	Interview.
C	Movie.
D	TV show.

2	What word describes a mistake or error in some code?
A	Insect.
B	Lizard.
C	Bug.
D	Virus.

3	What does CAD stand for?
A	Computer Animation Data.
B	Computer-aided design (software).
C	Code Algorithm Data.
D	Code Adaptation Design.

4	What parts make up an electrical device or product with processing capabilities?
A	Electronic computers.
B	Electronic code.
C	Electronic data.
D	Electronic components.

5	What are image rights?
A	A type of software for editing photographs.
B	A picture or image owned by someone or a company, requiring permission to use.
C	A way of sharing data from images.
D	A type of coding block often seen on Scratch.

6	What is a repeated sequence of instructions?
A	Variable.
B	Code.
C	Algorithm.
D	Loop.

7	What word means to capture an image of what is currently on the screen or monitor?
A	Screencatch.
B	Screenclip.
C	Screenshot.
D	Screenpic.

8	Why do we translate an algorithm into code?
A	So a computer can understand it.
B	So it can be made into a story.
C	So it is easier for another person to understand it.
D	So people can read it.

9	Which of the following is not an input for a Micro:bit coded as a timer?
A	The battery pack.
B	The cable used to program the Micro:bit
C	The button pushed to start the timer.
D	The light display.

10	When being creative with technology, what do you enjoy the most: coding, web design or film-making? Give reasons for your answer.