LKS2 - Would you prefer to have lived in the Stone Age, Bronze Age or Iron Age?

Imagine you are a curator. You have been invited by your local museum to write an introduction to the period that this object is from.

Ashmolean Museum, Oxford. Dates to about 1100-1000 BC.

In your description, you could include:

- The name of the historical period and a brief description of when it was.
- The types of tools and materials people used at the time.
- What food people would have eaten and how they got it.
- What their settlements might have looked like.
- What people in this period traded.
- What other object the visitors to the museum might see from this period.
