LKS2 - How have children's lives changed?

Imagine you are a curator. You have been invited by your local museum to write some background information for an exhibition about working Victorian children.

In your description, include:

- The period name, including any key dates.
- The working conditions of Victorian children.
- Who helped improve the lives of children in the period.
- The impact of the changes, including a reflection of children's lives now.

© Copyright Kapow Primary 2024