

allocate	To distribute resources or duties for a particular purpose.
borrow	To take something, such as money, with an intention to give it back.
commitment	A promise to do something or behave in a certain way.
expenditure	Money that is spent on something.
impact	The effect or influence that an action or event has on something or someone.
interest	Extra money paid for borrowing or money earned by saving money.
loan	Money that is borrowed and needs to be paid back, often with interest.
prioritise	To order the importance of things.
risk	A chance that something bad or unpleasant will happen.
stretch	To make something go as far as possible, such as money or resources.

Prioritise your spending on your needs to make your money last longer.

Finding a career that matches your interests and skills can make working more enjoyable.

Sometimes people borrow money that eventually needs to be paid back.

Be careful spending money online; check with a trusted adult to avoid scams.

It is important to give everyone an equal opportunity.

Income and expenditure can help a person to budget and plan spending.