

Name:

Date:

Unit title: MakeCode

1 What is block coding?

- A Writing code with a pen and paper.
- B Joining colourful blocks together to create instructions.
- C Typing long sentences into a computer.

2 Why is a sequence important in programming?

- A It makes the code look nice.
- B It ensures the steps are followed in the correct order.
- C It allows the code to be longer.

3 Which block is not used to start a program?

A

B

C

4 What does it mean to debug your code?

- A Add more blocks to the code.
- B Remove all the blocks from the code.
- C Find and fix errors in the code.

5 Look at the code. Explain what it does.