

Lesson 4: Why are some books special?

Adult-led task: Special books

Provide the children with the A5 paper (one each) and colouring pencils, crayons or felt tips for drawing and writing.

Ask them to draw or write about their book, this could be the front cover, a favourite character or a memorable event from the story.

Once finished, add the children's drawings to a class 'Special Books' display or put them in a class book.

Equipment

- A selection of fiction and non-fiction books.
- Children's favourite books (optional – see Carpet time).
- A Christian Bible (optional – see Carpet time).
- An English translation of the Qur'an (optional – see Carpet time).
- White A5 paper (one each).
- Colouring pencils or crayons (a selection between two).

Questions

- Why is this book important to you?
- How does it make you feel when you read it?
- Who do you like to read it with?

Vocabulary

- Qur'an - Muslim scripture believed by many to be the word of Allah (God) and revealed to Muhammad.
- Christian Bible - Scripture believed by many Christians to be the word of God